Welcome Letter of the Organizing Committee

The Chapter of Patras of the Scientific Society of Hellenic Medical Students with co-organizers, the Medical Department and the Deanery of the University of Patras are delighted and honored to invite you to the “3rd Clinical Course of Internal Medicine for Medical Students and Medical Graduates” which will take place on October 14th -16th, 2016 at the Events Hall Agora Argiri, in the city of Patras.

The main goal of this Course is to enrich our knowledge and define questions that have been formed upon basic matters of Internal Medicine during its practice on a clinical level. The Course will be FREE for all the participants and our goal is to embellish our scientific program with clinical lessons, round tables and lectures with the participation of distinguished scientists with wide clinical experience and remarkable research project, offering a unique three-day educational experience for Medical students and students from other Medical Sciences, as well as Junior Doctors.

After the extremely successful organizing of the 1st Course on September 28th-29th, 2014 and the 2nd Course on October 9th – 11th, 2015, we are closer to our will, to add to this event an annual color, transforming the city of Patras to an annual meeting point of accomplished scientists, students and junior doctors from every part of Greece with the direct support and cooperation of the academic and scientific community.

Supporters in our effort, for the third consecutive year are our teachers and professors with their valuable support for organizing the Course. We would like to thank them kindly, hoping we will prove ourselves to be worthy of the trust they showed us. Furthermore, we would like to thank the Hellenic Cardiological Society and especially Mrs. Evangelia Stamatopoulou and Mr. Georgio Latsio, for their valuable support. Last but not least, we would like to thank all the members of the Organizing Committee of the Chapter of Patras of the Scientific Society of Hellenic Medical Students, who with passion, fervor and creative ideas have contributed to the development of the Chapter so far and to organizing this Course.

Closing up, we would like to welcome you to the great city of Patras at the “3rd Clinical Course of Internal Medicine for Medical Students and Medical Graduates” hoping you'll have a beautiful and constructive three-day full of knowledge, prized experiences and most of all, beautiful memories.

Welcome Letter of the Scientific Committee

My dear Students,

I welcome you at the “3rd Clinical Course of Internal Medicine, for Medical students and Medical Graduates”, which it is organized for the third consecutive year, after the successful organization of the 1st and the 2nd Course last years.

We have worked together many times these last years, I truly congratulate you for your initiative, and for your continuous and irreducible interest for the knowledge and the research. The way that you manage your education sets a strong foundation for your future career and as a final impact the patient’s benefit.

I wish you from my heart good luck and continue the tradition. We are with you.

Venetsana Kyriazopoulou

*Professor of Endocrinology and Internal Medicine
Rector of the University of Patras*

Welcome Letter of the Department of the Internal Medicine

Dear Colleagues, students and Healthcare Scientists,

On behalf of the Department of Internal Medicine of the University Hospital of Patras, I have the pleasure to welcome you to an outstanding scientific three-day, the 3rd Clinical Course of Internal Medicine for Medical Students and Medical Graduates.

The formation of a new reality at the recent years, has affected the field of medicine as well, creating new challenges. The Chapter of Patras (S.S.H.M.S.), utilizing its dynamic presence, undertakes for 3rd consecutive year to contribute to the evolution and adaptation of the medical students to the new facts.

I'm sure that the 3rd Clinical Course of Internal Medicine for medical students and medical graduates will compose a great opportunity for further development of scientific interests and dialogue and will contribute to their training.

Charalampos Gogos

Vice – President of the Scientific Society

Professor of Internal Medicine – Infectious Diseases

Director of Internal Medicine Department – University General Hospital of Patras

SSHMS . . . A brief story

The Scientific Society of Hellenic Medical Students (SSHMS) was established in 1993 and today it consists of 7 Chapters, one in each Greek University's Medical School, and is staffed with more than 3.000 registered members. The goal of SSHMS is the scientific activation of Medical Students and the medical, social and educational work. In cooperation with homologous and other academic societies, the SSHMS has accomplished and continues to organize many Panhellenic scale actions, like the program "Medical Landing, the ABCS (Thessaloniki) and the Clinical Course of Internal Medicine (Patras). The most precious event of the Society is the Scientific Congress for Hellenic Medical Students. Furthermore, each chapter of the Society organizes many educational courses, and day conferences during the academic year.

Chapter of Patras . . . A brief Story

The Chapter of Patras of the Scientific Society of Hellenic Medical Students (S.S.H.M.S.), owns a very particular and at the same time fascinating part in the history of the S.S.H.M.S.. Since its re-establishment in May 17th, 2010, it maintains an indispensable part of the Medical School of Patras with its enormous range of activities and the partnerships, which has formed with numerous medical scientific events. In these last six years, the chapter enumerates over 350 active members. The wide acceptance and recognition gained the cooperation and support from the Deanery of the University of Patras and the School of Medicine of the University of Patras. In the quiver of our activities are included numerous scientific, social, and humanitarian events and activities. The most precious moments of the Chapter of Patras were the organisation of the 19th Scientific Congress for Hellenic Medical Students & 7th International Forum for Hellenic Medical Students and Junior Doctors, the 22nd Scientific Congress for Hellenic Medical Students & 10th International Forum for Hellenic Medical Students and Junior Doctors and the Clinical Course of Internal Medicine for Medical Students and Medical Graduates.

Scientific Program

Friday, October 14th, 2016

Workshop

The Chapter of Patras of the Scientific Society of Hellenic Medical Students (S.S.H.M.S.), in cooperation with the working group of Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and Intensive Care and the Nursing working group in Cardiology of the Hellenic Society of Cardiology (H.S.C.) have the great pleasure and honor to welcome you to participate in the BLS/AED provider course.

The aim of this course is to train medical students and new doctors in Basic Life Support and in the use of the Automated External Defibrillator (BSL/AED provider course), based on the latest guidelines of 2015 in CPR and the principles of learning and adult education. At the end of the course, the trainees will be able to recognize a cardiac arrest victim, to properly perform specialized care, to provide efficient chest compressions and ventilations, to use with safety the AED and to put an unconscious but breathing victim in resuscitation position.

The training will be performed in small groups (5-6 students) under the guidance of experienced teachers of the European Resuscitation Council. In order to successfully attend the course, all participants will have to study the resuscitation handbook, which will be provided soon.

The duration of the course is approximately 4,5 hours and is certified by the European Resuscitation Council (ERC).
